PriMED - Prevention and interaction in the Trans-Mediterranean space

TRANS-MED FALL SCHOOL

New narrations about diversities

22th OCTOBER – 20th NOVEMBER 2020

CALL FOR APPLICATION

WHAT IS TRANS-MED FALL SCHOOL?

Trans-Med Fall School. New narrations about diversity is the first fall school of the Master Expert in historical communication: multimedia and digital languages in collaboration with PriMED Network.

The Course, in English, provides a multidisciplinary framework on the theme of diversity in the Mediterranean area, with particular attention to how it has been and is expressed by the younger generations. It also provides cultural and technical tools to narrate and communicate the linguistic, cultural, social and religious diversity.

With the Trans-Med Fall School you will acquire knowledge about:

- cultures and layers from a legal, sociological and anthropological perspective
- processes of cultural interaction in the Mediterranean
- social, cultural and artistic practices
- youth cultures, subcultures and pop cultures
- ways and tools to narrate diversity
- institutional and administrative authorities: bottom-up and top-down perspectives

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The Course aims to respond to the growing demand on how to narrate and communicate effectively the complexity of issues related to the history and stories, culture and cultures of the Mediterranean.

Specifically, the objectives are:

- knowledge of the geographies, cultures and stories of the Mediterranean through some key words

- acquisition of technical professional multimedia languages
- increase of communicative skills for the foundation of a media culture
- acquisition of skills for team working

STUDY PLAN

The Trans-Med Fall School will take place from October 22th to November 20th, 2020, every Thursday and Friday. The course includes a commitment of 150 hours, equal to 6 CFU, divided between classroom activities in presence, distance learning, meetings with tutors and final project work.

LESSONS AND WORKSHOPS

Classes will take place on Thursday and Friday from 3pm to 6pm.

The detailed plan of the lectures, held by experts and professors, will be available on the Teams platform for subscribers.

The lessons will be recorded and it will be possible to view them on a later date.
